<sup>4</sup> Combined returns include predecessor Class F3 from December 19, 2013, to May 25, 2021, and Class F from May 26, 2021, onward. Class F inception date: May 26, 2021; Class F3 inception date: December 19, 2013. Combined returns shown assume Class F3 units were converted at NAV to Class F at its inception on May 26, 2021. All outstanding Class F3 units were converted to Class F effective December 1, 2021.

<sup>5</sup> Class F returns assume all distributions were reinvested, are based on a NAV/unit issuance price, and are net of fees (without applicable rebates that may be available).

<sup>6</sup> Class F3 returns are net of fees and assume all distributions were reinvested based on an issuance price of $10/unit until December 31, 2019, and NAV/unit thereafter, are shown for an investment of less than $500,000, and attribute special distributions to the year of declaration. Class F3 had different unit terms; if the current Class F terms had been applied to Class F3 units, the returns would have been different.

<sup>7</sup> 2021 distributions have been annualized to provide a more relevant comparison to other years.
